

Our Fairest Alma Mater

Words by Lavinia Costello (CST '15)

Music by Helen Kirschstein (CST '16)

Lavinia Costello was a first cousin of Sister M. Conleth Hager, OSF (CST '61)

1. 'Mid the bluffs so staunch and true, With their castl - ed rocks a - bove,
2. Near Wi - no - na's quiet wa - ter, There by God and na - ture blest,
3. Joy - ous hours, - friend - ships rare, Bless - ed mem'-ries yet un - told,
4. In our youth we've loved thee well, With each year we'll love thee more,

5

Tow'-ring in - to skies so blue, Stands the col - lege that we love.
Lies our cher-ished Al - ma Mater, By each daugh - ter loved the best. } All These we owe thee, Mo - ther Fair. These our hearts round Thee en - fold.
May our child-ren's child-ren tell These same prais - es o'er and o'er. } hail! O fair-est Al-ma Mat - er, Our love for thee will ne'er grow old. O Saint Te - re - sa Al-ma

10

15

Ma - ter! All - hail! thy white and gold. All - hail! thy white and gold.